

A black and white photograph of the Tower Bridge in London at night, with its lights reflecting on the water. The bridge is illuminated, and the city lights are visible in the background.

MEDICAL WORK EXPERIENCE AND PERSONAL STATEMENT REVIEWS

For students from GCSE through to A-level, and university students, with an interest in studying medicine

Key course summary

- Work experience in a lecture based/ virtual format (equivalent points to a 2-week hospital placement)
- Access to unlimited personal statement reviews
- Medical research experience and the opportunity to publish with us
- Lectures by London medical school interview panel – what they want
- Opportunities to help organise medical conferences
- Free attendance at “how to form a medical diagnosis” conference – usually £45
- Talks from international performance coaches, elite performers – enhance your grades
- Not another "how to" course, but pragmatic and directly applicable experience
- Peer-reviewed course published in the world's leading medical education journal
- Discount on KAPLAN™ UCAT courses

Student suitability

- Suitable for students from GCSE through to A-Levels, and university students, pre and post personal statement submissions, with a certain interest in medicine.

More detailed information

www.oslersroom.com/sub/medicine\_4\_the\_masses

Tickets: £65; (10% off before 30th May)

Date: Saturday 29th June 2018

Time: 09.30am - 4.30pm

Location: Central London, details on website